

What is a film trailer?

Look at the statements about film trailers on this chart. With a partner, decide which statements you AGREE or DISAGREE with. Give reasons for your answers.

Statement	Agree	Disagree
Trailers are an important part of a film's marketing campaign
Trailers are produced for fun with money left over from a film's main budget
Trailers are like adverts for a film
Trailers are simply a shorter version of a film
Trailers inform potential audiences about a film with the purpose of encouraging people to see the film at the cinema
Trailers and film posters are designed to complement each other
Trailers should only be screened in the cinema		